

CHERYL SCOTT-MANWARREN

QUALIFICATIONS

- Knowledge and experience working with diverse population and communities
- Highly developed ability to plan and prioritize work, able to multi-task
- Ability to liaise effectively with families, professionals, and other service providers
- Direct experience with children, adolescents and adults with multiple challenges
- Demonstrated ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Excellent oral and written communication skills

EXPERIENCE

Residential Counselor

2007

Vita Community Living Services

- Demonstrate the values of the organization within the workplace and in the community
- Promote a safe and healthy work environment for the people supported
- Usage of company vehicle to transport clients to appointments and various community events
- Completes / maintains all appropriate administrative records in a timely manner
- Provide support to adults with emotional, behavioural and physical challenges
- Organize one to one and group outings

Rehabilitation Support Worker

2007 - Present

Wright Rehab

- Collect required clinical data
- Complete clinical notes, timesheets, expense forms and other reports as required
- Transport clients as required
- Provide direct and indirect care for assigned clients
- Follow design programs as accurately as possible
- Communicate and cooperate with family members and other service providers

Residential Facilitator

2000 - 2007

Community Head Injury Resource Services (Chirs)

- Assess individuals skills, abilities, areas of need and degree of support required
- Compose and implement service and support plans
- Advocate on behalf of individuals and support individuals in self-advocacy

92 Caplan Avenue, Suite 142
Barrie, Ontario L4N 0Z7

144 Airdrie Road
Toronto, Ontario M4G 1M5

T 705.797.2107
F 1.866.242.0792

wrightrehab.ca

- Maintain complete and confidential case records for each client in care
- Provide physical assistance and care as required including: toileting, showering, dressing transferring, general mobility
- Report on individuals accomplishments, progress, skills, and ongoing needs through quarterly reports

EDUCATION

E.C.E Diploma

Humber College of Applied Arts and Technology

1999