

CATASTROPHIC INJURY MANAGEMENT, INC.

1600 STEELES AVENUE WEST • UNIT 17B • CONCORD, ON L4K 4M2 • TEL: (905) 669-6882 • FAX: (905) 669-6883

JODI HARENDORF, B.A. (Psych.), CCRC, CCLCP
Rehabilitation Consultant
Managing Director

EDUCATION:

- 1986 Rehabilitation Services Certificate
York University-Seneca College Rehabilitation Services Program
Toronto, Ontario
- 1986 Bachelor of Arts in Psychology
York University, Toronto, Ontario

PROFESSIONAL ACHIEVEMENTS:

- 1992 Accredited Rehabilitation Worker (A.R.W.)
through the Canadian Association of Rehabilitation Professionals
- 1992/1997/2002/2007 Canadian Certified Rehabilitation Counselor (C.C.R.C.)
through the Commission of Certified Rehabilitation Counselors
- 2005/2009 Canadian Certified Life Care Planner (C.C.L.C.P.)
through the Commission on Health Care Certification &
The Canadian Institute of Life Care Planners

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Oct 1995 - Present CATASTROPHIC INJURY MANAGEMENT, INC.
Concord, Ontario
Managing Director

- Manage a regular caseload, specializing in case management of catastrophic injuries
- Supervision and training other case managers
- Overall operation of Catastrophic Injury Management, Inc.
- Development of rehabilitation procedures and formats
- Coordinate and deliver presentations and learning workshops in the rehabilitation and insurance industries

Jodi Harendorf

- Maintaining current information regarding legislative and funding changes
- Conducting vocational rehabilitation DAC assessments
- Expertise in Future Care Cost Analysis
- Experienced in Pediatric & Geriatric Rehabilitation

2007 - present Conducting IME's for Life Mark.

August 1986 - REHABILITATION SERVICES OF CANADA
August 1995 Mississauga, Ontario
Senior Rehabilitation Specialist – Catastrophic Case Management

- Managed a full caseload
- Extensive experience in assessing and developing rehabilitation programs for clients with various disabilities such as soft tissue injuries, head injuries, spinal cord injuries, multiple fractures, psychiatric and psychological trauma
- Member of the catastrophic case management team
- Participated in ongoing workshops and seminars to the industry
- Strong report-writing, communication and interpersonal skills
- Strong working knowledge of community resources and their role in the rehabilitation process
- Strong medical and vocational experience in order to assess barriers and client needs to ensure successful rehabilitation outcome
- Participated in in-house training of new employees
- Developed field training modules to assist service units with ongoing training
- Developed and co-supervised a student placement program for students studying rehabilitation
- Developed a placement manual
- Overall experience and knowledge in all aspects of the rehabilitation process, stages of healing, awareness of impact of disability of quality of life and to provide supportive counseling to clients and their families

CONTINUING EDUCATION:

2009 Relax & Learn 2009 – An Interactive Collaborative Forum for ABI Professionals
Community Solutions – Alliston, Ontario

2008 Mild to Moderate TBI
Sunnybrook Hospital, Toronto, Ontario

Toronto ABI Network Conference
Toronto ABI Network, Toronto, ON

Discharge & Beyond
Excel Care, Burlington, ON

Counseling Ethics
CM Home Study

Self Employment – A Viable Option
C.A.R.P. Ontario, Toronto, ON

Ethics Presentation
VRA, Toronto, ON

2007

Successful Intelligence in the Classroom
Peel District School Board, Mississauga, ON

Connecting Solutions – Linking, Bridging, and Building Across Case Management
The Canadian Network for Case Managers, Toronto, ON

Trauma & Compassion Fatigue Seminar and Workshop
Gluckstein & Associates, Toronto, ON

2006

Discharge and Beyond
Excel Care, Toronto, ON

Trauma, Rehabilitation, and Recovery From The Inside Out
C.A.R.P., Toronto, ON

Dealing with Difficult Clients
CARP – Toronto, Ontario

Developing Competencies Through Collaboration
Community Solutions, - Peterborough, Ontario

Community Works: The Importance of Community Connections in ABI Rehabilitation
Head Injury Association of Durham Region, Whitby, ON