

A Brief Résumé of:

Ashok K. Jain, O.T. Reg. (Ont.)

Occupational Therapist

Education:

Graduate, Occupational Therapy Program 1976
Bachelors of Arts Degree (BA) 1978
Master of Business Administration (MBA) 1990

Relevant Work Experience:

1976-1980	India	Neurological disorders including strokes and head injury, accident and emergency (A&E)
1980-1984	England	Geriatrics, orthopaedics, neurology (head injury) and accident & emergency (trauma program)
1984-1990	Saskatoon	Developed Mental Health services at the psychiatry department at the Royal University Hospital; Also worked extensively with head injury clients in the Neurology department.
1990-1999	Toronto	Senior Occupational Therapist/Researcher at the Centre for Addiction and Mental Health (Formerly Queen Street Mental Health Centre)
1996-1999	Toronto	Lecturer, University of Toronto
1990-to-date	Toronto	Provide occupational therapy services to clients with a variety of physical and mental disabilities including motor vehicle accident injuries, work related trauma, and head injuries, and general medical condition using the model of client centered practice of occupational therapy. <ul style="list-style-type: none">- in-home OT assessment- attendant care needs assessment.- functional restoration program- cognitive re-training- job analysis (JA)- functional ability evaluation (FAE)- return-to-work (RTW) program- work hardening program- worker safety and back care education,- lifting and transfer training to care givers- case management- ADP authorizer for mobility devices- assessment for accessibility and technical aids for environmental adaptation- developed customized software for head injury clients- Future Cost of Care Assessments

Language Fluency: English, Hindi, Punjabi

Professional Affiliations and Licenses:

- CAOT - Member, Canadian Association of Occupational Therapists since 1984
 - COTO - Registered, College of Occupational Therapists of Ontario since 1993
- Registration Number: G9301505